

27TH PRAGUE INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL
PRAGUE 19.–27. 3. 2020

Prague, 10 March 2020

Press release

Prague International Film Festival – Febiofest in Czech Republic cancelled until further notice

As of 10 March, in accordance with the position of Government of the Czech Republic and extraordinary measures introduced in connection with the spread in the Czech Republic of the disease COVID-19 caused by the new coronavirus SARS-CoV-2, the Prague International Film Festival – Febiofest is cancelled until further notice. The Prague IFF – Febiofest plans to move one of the biggest film events in Prague and the Czech Republic to another date in 2020.

Under a decree issued by the Government of the Czech Republic, theatre, music and film presentations as well as sports and religious events and artistic performances with attendance of 100 people are banned from 6 pm on 10 March. The Prague International Film Festival – Febiofest is cancelled for the previously announced dates of 19 to 27 March in Prague and 30 March to 9 April in the regions.

The Prague IFF – Febiofest will set replacement dates on the basis of the development of the epidemic in the Czech Republic and Europe.
